The parties last appeared before this Court on November 22, 2016 for initial appearance on the Petition for Summons for Offender Under Supervision filed October 7, 2017. Doc. 43. The defendant, Gebrael Robel Admasu, was represented by counsel Roger Patton. The United States was represented by Assistant United States Attorney Susan Badger. United States Probation Officer John Woods is the supervising Probation Officer in this matter. At the November 22, 2016 appearance, the parties agreed that the defendant would be released by the U.S. Marshal so that he could report for a 90-day period of residential drug treatment at HealthRight 360. The matter was then continued to February 28, 2017 at 2:30 p.m. for status before this Court.

On February 23, 2017, the Probation Office submitted, and the Court filed, a document entitled Second Amended Petition for Arrest Warrant for Offender Under Supervision. Doc. 55. The Second Amended Petition added two new allegations of violations of the terms and conditions of supervised release. One of those allegations is that the defendant was unsuccessfully discharged from the HealthRight 360 program on January 24, 2017.

The parties are arranging to appear before United States Magistrate Judge Maria-Elena James on March 1, 2017 for arraignment on the Second Amended Petition. The parties will arrange to obtain discovery from the Probation Office and will discuss possible resolution of this matter. The parties believe they will be in a position to resolve the matter or set it for hearing once they have adequate time to review discovery and discuss the matter with the Probation Officer.

In light of the above, the parties stipulate and agree to request that the Court continue the status hearing on the supervised release violation matter from February 28, 2017 at 2:30 p.m. to March 28, 2017 at 2:30 p.m. USPO John Woods has advised that he is available on March 28, 2017 at 2:30 p.m. IT IS SO STIPULATED.

DATED: February 24, 2017

Respectfully submitted,

BRIAN J. STRETCH
